These special features will be mentioned in the Plan:

St Mary's church, Thundridge designed by Benjamin Ferry in 1853 with money from the Hanbury family.

The Cattle Creep, Thundridge, once used to move cattle under the A10, now used by the children of Thundridge primary school to reach their playing field in safety.

The Post Mill mound Thundridge, near the Pit and not far from the Windmill public house (now closed). The Post Mill was pulled down in 1870, just leaving the mound.

The Puller family vaults in St John's Church yard High Cross and the Hanbury family vaults in St Mary's Church yard Thundridge. These two families helped to shape much of the history of both villages and their legacy is still seen today.

The Grave of Arthur Martin-Leake Double VC and Bar is to be found in a quiet corner of St Johns church, High Cross. He won his first VC during the Boer War and his second one during the Balkan War, 1912-13 and finally to Flanders where he won the bar to his VC. His connection with High Cross was because he spent his childhood at the family home of Marshalls and died there in 1953 aged 79. A plaque commemorating his achievements is to be found by the lychgate of the church.

A Meridian post is to be found in Cold Christmas near to the house "Swangles". There was a Meridian post placed in the year 1984, wherever the Meridian line crossed a public highway.

Several large examples of Hertfordshire Conglomerate (pudding stone) are to be seen at Sutes Farm, High Cross.
